

Book Fair and Personal Readings from Authors

Saturday, May 15, 2010 * 11am – 5pm * Bronzeville Visitor's Center
 3501 S. King Drive (entrance on 35th Street)
 Accessible from #3 King Drive Bus * Street parking available

We are a local and talented group of Black Chicago Authors who have banded together to highlight our work. Our goal is to bring our novels and literary publications to the forefront for the reading public.

We are dedicated to being a Chicago Renaissance for both urban literature and fiction/non-fiction in general.

From romance to comedy, children to fantasy, history and culture to inspirational and religious, we know that we can fulfill whatever form of literary works your mind desires.
