

Black Heritage Committee

Northeastern ILLINOIS UNIVERSITY

presents

MICHELLE DUSTER

Michelle Duster is a writer, speaker, and project manager who highlights the positive contributions of African Americans. Author of Ida In Her Own Words (BW Publishing, 2008) and Ida From Abroad (BW Publishing, 2010), Michelle brings to life the teachings and writings of her great-grandmother, Ida B. Wells.

Michelle is the recipient of several awards and honors for her contributions to African American History and the field of communications including:

2010 - listed in Who's Who in Black Chicago book

2009 - Cheyney University of Pennsylvania NAACP Founder's Award, City of Houston honoree and the Irma Kingsley Johnson Distinguished Service Award by the Chicago Friends of the Amistad Research Center

Tuesday, February 8, 2011 • 3:05 - 4:30 p.m.
Golden Eagles Room • Admission is free

Sponsored by the Black Heritage Committee, Women's Studies Program and Political Science Department.

For additional information, visit www.neiu.edu/BlackHeritage

